THE CAT’S GRIN THEATRE COMPANY PRESENTS

THE WIZARD OF OZ

by Frank L Baum in an original adaptation by Don Brown

In Kansas, Dorothy and her dog, Toto, live on a farm with her Uncle Henry & Aunt Em. When a tornado hits, Dorothy’s grey world is turned upside down. She is transported to the technicolour world of Oz. Four actors play multiple roles in this unique, immersive adaptation of the original book by Frank L Baum. It is packed with audience participation – including the role of Toto – and finally brings to life characters that were left by the Yellow Brick Roadside for the 1939 musical version.

Irving Undead
Written and performed by West End actor James Swanton

Henry Irving is dead. In life, he was the greatest actor of the Victorian age. But in death, he is remembered only for inspiring Bram Stoker to write Dracula. Irving is not content to be forgotten, so join his restless spirit as he relates a story of obsessive artistic devotion, Gothic transformation, and doomed love. A man who - Miriam Margolyes

KICK IN THE HEAD PRESENTS
MUCH ADO ABOUT FALSTAFF
A new comedy by John Downing

Kick In The Head follow up recent successes with a new play about Sir John Falstaff…a rogue, a philanderer and a glutton, but also one of Shakespeare’s greatest and enduring comic creations. Falstaff, played by Giles Shenton (Old Herbaceous and Three Men in a Boat) is in his bedroom in the Boar’s Head being nursed by Mistress Quickly. An evening of jollity, frivolity, a definite lack of coequality and more Shakespearean insults than ever previously heard on a theatrical stage!

ALUNA MUSIC IN ASSOCIATION WITH PLANET GILES PROUDLY PRESENTS

Yasmine & Peter Giles
INSIGHTS - CD Launch

Harking back to the age of the Concept Album, the songs for INSIGHTS were written in one ‘hit’. Yasmine explains: “As Pete and I were noodling around on the keyboard and bass, suddenly words, melodies and chords came all at once as chunks of formed ideas. All 10 songs came through like that...” The story of INSIGHTS is a personal and professional odyssey that led us to the realization that our life experience is indeed much more than we know...”
